

Halewood Town Council Newsletter

February / March 2015

A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Once again, Halewood Town Council were absolutely delighted to host its Annual Pensioners Christmas Party. Over 50 of our older residents came to the Arncliffe Centre to enjoy a wonderful afternoon of celebrations and to sit down to the traditional Christmas dinner of Roast Turkey and all the trimmings. During the afternoon, they were also visited by Father Christmas.

This year we were also delighted to welcome Knowsley Dementia Care – Memory Lane to the Arncliffe Centre for their Christmas dinner. They too had a visit from Father Christmas and an afternoon of wonderful entertainment.

Our thanks and gratitude to the staff and Members of the Town Council who supported all the events over Christmas and in particular to the volunteers who help organise the various community groups in the Township. Here's a few pictures taken at the events...

SPECTACULAR CHRISTMAS CONCERT

'Spectacular' was how one member of the audience described this years Christmas concert with the RLPO.

Held on 11th December at Halewood Academy, the concert showcased choirs from each primary school in Halewood, the Academy and Halewood Community Choir. MATE and Altru Drama also demonstrated their skill in providing two dramatic pieces. A standing ovation !!
