

Halewood Town Council

COUNCIL OF THE YEAR 2008

August/September 2012

The Queen's Jubilee Celebrations in Halewood

The celebrations within the Township led to a number of community/street parties, which the Town Council were happy to assist with a small grant towards the costs. Grants were made to the following :- Halewood Youth in Community Centre, Kenton Road, Mackets Estate, Kinloch Close, Yew Tree PTA, Penmann Crescent, Compton Way, and Merstone Close. In addition, the Arncliffe Centre turned its traditional Thursday afternoon Luncheon Club into a special Jubilee Party, with a performance from the Irish Guards Choir. If you add the fact that the Town Council also arranged for over 2,000 commemorative mugs to be commissioned and distributed, which were mainly to every Halewood primary school pupil), then the people were left in no doubt as to the contribution the Town Council had made in honouring Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on this landmark occasion.

At the Town Council's Annual Meeting, we were also happy to honour the unsung heroes of Halewood in our Annual Community Achievement Awards. Recipients this years were Jean Dean, Julie McDermott, Chris Smart, Maurice Jacobs, Rita Leigh, Joan Hayes and Tony Luccock.
