

Halewood Town Council

COUNCIL OF THE YEAR 2008

February/March 2013

A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR !

The 2012 RLPO Concert held on Thursday 13 December 2012 was a huge success. A sell-out audience once again enjoyed the world famous Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, as well as the choir which consisted of a number of pupils from the various primary schools in Halewood, as well as students from the Halewood Centre for Learning and the Halewood Community Choir.

In addition, the Halewood Centre for Learning had two performances of their own pantomime, again sponsored by the Town Council. The Town Council also funded two performances of a pantomime at the Arncliffe Centre and the New Hutte Centre.

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR SUPPORT !!

As you can see it was a busy time in Halewood leading up to Christmas and New Year. Pictured on this page left to right, top to bottom are:-

1. The Halewood Centre for Learning cast for their own pantomime, sponsored by the Town Council.
2. The Arncliffe Centres "Senior Citizens Party"
3. Father Christmas arrives at the Arncliffe party
4. "Elvis" entertains the people at the Arncliffe Centre.
5. The Mayors of Knowsley and Halewood, respectively join the choir of local schoolchildren for a photograph at the RLPO Concert.

HALEWOOD FOOD BANK.

St Mary's Church in Halewood are organising a "Food Bank" and the project will be run from the Church Centre on a Saturday. Halewood Town Council are keen to support this scheme, and therefore we are offering the Arncliffe and Hollies hall Community Centres for "drop-off" points should residents wish to donate food.
